

Agenda
Workshop on Inactive Account Charges (IACs)
Date: August 25, 2008
Location: Administrative Conference Room, 206 S. 6th Street

Attendees:

FPUA Staff

FPUA Board

Murray Hamilton, PRMG (Not available August 8-19)

Public

1. Background for development and implementation of IACs
2. Summary of IACs charged by other Florida water, wastewater and electric utilities
3. Status of IAC collection and revenues generated (
 - Numbers of commercial and residential accounts paying IACs
 - Breakdown by commercial/residential
4. Summary of customer complaints
 - large commercial accounts
 - landlords
 - seasonal residents
5. Possible alternatives or adjustments to present policy
 - Eliminate IACs and distribute costs among active accounts
 - * Impact on rates
 - * Backlash from year-round customers
 - Increase connect and disconnect charges
 - Adjust IACs
 - Address IACs and CICs for home demolitions and infill development
 - * Suspend IACs if building is demolished and meters and services are removed by FPUA?
 - * Credit CICs if prior service to lot can be verified (in an amount equal to past service)
 - Combinations of the above
 - Other alternatives?
6. Potential Economic Development Initiatives
 - Capital Improvement Charge Discounts
 - Economic development Rates
7. Workshop summary and FPUA Board direction to staff